*4 Days/3 Nights Ritz Carlton Reserve Residence
West Beach, Dorado, Puerto Rico, August - October 2018
Value: $13,500 (approximately $4,500 night)*

Experience four days/three nights of luxurious living... just steps from the Atlantic Ocean and surrounded by acres of tropical forest!

Dorado Beach, a Ritz Carlton Reserve property, is one of the most exclusive resorts in Puerto Rico, inspired by the legacy and memorable vacation experiences of its original developer, Laurance S. Rockefeller.

This two-bedroom, 2,200 square foot ground floor West Beach Residence features:

- Terrace with private pool overlooking the ocean
- Fully equipped gourmet kitchen
- Dining/living room and laundry room
- Eight (up to six adults) can stay comfortably in 2 bedrooms, plus pull-out sofa
- Six seat Golf Cart for easy transport around the grounds

Guests can enjoy the Ritz Carlton Hotel amenities and Dorado Beach resort amenities, easily accessible by Golf Cart:

- Three Robert Trent Jones, Sr.-designed championship golf courses
- Encanto Beach Club, restaurant, bar and beachside pool (just steps away from this residence!)
- Luxurious Spa Botánico, a five-acre sanctuary with beauty salon, Purification Gardens, "tree house" massage platforms and relaxation rooms
- Endless water sports – kite surfing, paddle boarding, kayaking, snorkeling and windsurfing
- The Watermill – a $12 million aquatic playground featuring dramatic water slides and rope bridges
- On-site fine and casual dining options, including La Cocina Culinary Center featuring regional cooking classes and wine theme dinners
- 8,000 square foot Fitness & Wellness Center
- Five tennis courts
- 11 miles of private biking and walking trails
- Jean Costeau Ambassadors of the Environment Children's Program
